

SPRING-SUMMER HOME IMPROVEMENT 2012

Table of Contents

- 1) Garage Sales: Make the most out of selling unused or unwanted items.
- 2) Finding Furniture That Fits: When considering new pieces, custom-made may be the way to go. (Photo)
- 3) To Improve or Not To Improve: Hard-to-sell home improvements. (Photo)
- 4) Design Rule 1-2-3: The right colors. (Photo)
- 5) Sold!: Quick and easy fix-ups that make your home look better and sell faster. (Photo)
- 6) Patio Upgrades: Real remodels require experts. (Photos)
- 7) Keeping Up Appearances: Simple fixes and small changes that keep your home running at full capacity. (Photos)
- 8) Porch Perfect: Creating the perfect porch oasis. (Photo)
- 9) Designing a Guest Room: The keys to making visitors feel right at home. (Photo)
- 10) The Tween Bedroom Challenge: Tips on collaborating with your adolescent on design. (Photo)
- 11) Home Addition Planning: Start with paper, a pencil and a ruler before turning on the computer. (Photo)
- 12) Weatherproofing: Tips for restoring a wood deck to its original beauty. (Photo)
- 13) Exterior Design Considerations: A home addition's exterior requires as much design consideration as the interior.
- 14) Privacy Fence: Extend your home's living space while creating an outdoor retreat. (Photo)
- 15) The Front Door: Easy instructions for replacing a front door that has sidelights. (Photo)

Spring-Summer Home Improvement infographics